

UKRO 'Road to Rescue' Workshops

No6 Cinema, Historic Dockyard. Portsmouth, PO1 3LJ

Friday 27th

Time	Workshop	Overview	Presenter
10:00	Assessing Consciousness - "is the casualty alert and responsive"	Summary: The workshop will look at what is meant by 'consciousness', the causes of and mechanisms underlying declining consciousness and the various ways of assessing it in an acute setting.	The University of Cardiff - Timothy Johnson
11:00	The Pathway To Extrication	*How a rescue can continue when Paramedics/Medical crews embed themselves into patient treatment. *Identify the differing tasks that can continue even when a Paramedic is completing active treatment in the required space. Identifying extrication plans and pathways	Joel de'Zuna – New South Wales
13:00	PGI Safety	Cancer and firefighters, innovation PPE and where we are with standards.	Andy Slater
14:00	National Operational Learning	NOL Case Study 1	James Sivell and Samuel Fairman
15:00	RTC Theory What we Did, what we now do now and how UKRO is reflected in our service.	Theory Overview Casualty Centred Approach Equipment Positive outcomes since the introduction of vehicle relocation	Rob Barrow - Hampshire & IOW

Saturday 28th

Time	Workshop	Overview	Presenter
09:30	10 Second triage	Ten Second Triage - “what is it all about and why is it important” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Brief Introduction as to what is TST? • Brief understanding of the learning points from Manchester Arena Enquiry • When would we use TST? • The importance of speaking the same language • Tabletop session using the Ten Second Triage tool 	Richie Matthews – South Wales FRS
10:15	psychological impact of casualties in RTC's.	Psychology of Rescue Aiming to understand the role FRS personnel play in the lasting psychological impact of casualties in RTC's.	Lynsey Mahmood - University of Kent
11:00	National Operational Learning	NOL Case Study 2	James Sivell and Samuel Fairman
12:45	Airway Management workshop - practical workshop	Objectives My aim from this session is that the participants will come out with <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An understanding of the management of pre hospital airway management and how equipment can be optimised • An awareness of the step by step progress to manage and secure a contaminated airway. • A chance to apply some stress management techniques in a simulated case example and practice this to gain competence. 	James Short - UKRO
13:45	Case Study How the Australasian Rescue Organization (ARO) developed and delivered Australasia's inaugural Water Rescue Challenge and brought	After 2 years of widespread flooding in Australia, the Australasian Rescue Organisation (ARO) developed a Water Rescue Challenge to bring together agencies and teams from across Australia. The Challenge worked on the strict philosophy of realistic yet measurable scenarios that	Shannon Crofton - NSW

	real rescues into the challenge scenario.	would confront rescue teams.
14:00	Trauma Care - "Do the basics well, always"	Ensuring that the basics are done very well every time with respect to casualty care. An overview of evidence-based, basic trauma care for all disciplines within UKFRS	Phil Keating - UKRO
15:00	Extrication Absolutes: The 'PRIORITY' Approach - New Beginnings.	The 'PRIORITY' approach focuses on efficient, effective and patient-focused extrication during Road Traffic Collisions (RTCs), ensuring a balanced consideration of safety, interoperability, and efficiency while delivering patient-focused outcomes.	Ian Marritt - UKRO